Rites Held For Rancher McLemore

The Post's Texas News Service

SAN AUGUSTINE, Jan 22—Funeral services were held Tuesday for Vessie E. McLemore, 66, retired San Augustine rancher, who died of a heart attack at noon Monday.

Services were at the Church of God in Rosevine Community, 12 miles east of here, and burial was in the Rosevine Cemetery.

The Rev. M. B. Crawford of Shreveport, La., conducted the services.

Mr. McLemore was well known through East and South Texas, having operated ranching interests near Garwood for six years, at Pearsall for four years and in the East Texas area for the past 30 years.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Nina McLemore; five sons, Percy, Ray, Earl and Lynn of San Augustine and Tommy of Cleveland, Ohio; one daughter, Mrs. Yvonne Tisdale of Zavalla; three sisters, Mrs. Elvie Speights of Beaumont, Miss Nellie McLemore and Mrs. Emma Cammack of Hemphill, and two brothers, Ernest McLemore and Ira McLemore of Hemphill.
